Subject: Logistics for Contacts in Congressional Offices for Site Visits

Good Morning, Michael –

I seemed to have misplaced your original email but remembered the contact, I hope.

Our lobbyists have been working directly with the various congressional Washington DC offices to work out the schedules for the Allied Site visits. Generally, we've been working directly with each scheduler in Senators Stabenow, Levin and Rep. Upton's offices. We have also kept the local staff aware of what is going on; however, they do not set up the actual schedule for the Senator/Representative.

I would suggest that you contact the individual schedulers in the DC offices regarding logistics. They can nail down the dates and times. The local staff will probably then work out more of the site logistics with you.

I can forward you that contact information if needed. Also please forward on to Ellen since I've misplaced the original email.

Thank you.

Bruce
